Millions of Grasshoppers Killed This Week by Poison Bait Spread

Municipal Plant Operating 24 Hours Per Day To Satisfy Demand of Local Farmers

As a result of the demand for grasshopper poison bait the municipal authorities have opened up their plant in the skating rink and are turning out the poison at top speed.

This is the season of the year when the bait is most useful. One farmer telephoned the municipal office on Monday and said that he never in his experience had the poison proven so effective. No one could count the million of hoppers which he had killed but they could measure the depth of the bodies of the pests as they lay in the field overcome with poison. He was told that he had put out his poison at the proper moment, the time and method of spreading having much to do with the success. Full information regarding the matter from the department is elsewhere in this issue.

Grasshoppers poison is supplied free by the municipality, but it is understood that a limit to the amount to be given out to any one farmer during the season, and farmers are urged to take advantage of the facilities and service of the station.

LEGISLATION

Lands Titles Act Amendment Act 1939

Acts amends The Land Titles Act by striking out section 105 which gives validity to attornment clauses in mortgages and agreements of sale, and by substituting therefor a new section which declares that every attornment clause in any mortgage, agreement for sale or other instrument whether made before or after this act comes into force, is utterly null and void as from the day this Act comes into force.

This Act came into force on April 3rd, 1939.

Judicature Act Amendment Act 1939

The amendment to section 37 provides that in any action brought upon a mortgage or agreement for the sale of land at any time before or after this provision comes into force, the right of the mortgages or vendor respectively shall be limited to the land and to the foreclosure of the mortgage or cancellation of the agreement of sale as the case may be; and further provides that no action shall lie on the covenant for the payment of the principal money or purchase money payable under any mortgage or agreement for sale of land.

A further provision requires in any action brought upon any mortgage or agreement for sale of land, the order to be made by the Court shall provide for the offering for sale of the land and if the sale is abortive an order may be made for foreclosure of the mortgage or cancellation of the agreement for sale as the case may be, and thereupon all rights for the recovery of the principal or purchase money are extinguished.

The amendment to section 48 permits the public administrator to take out letters of administration on the expiration of fourteen days from the death of a deceased person where no application for probate or letters of administration has been made within that time.

This Act came into force on April 3rd, 1939.

Educational Standards

Leading educationists, magazines and newspapers throughout the English speaking world have praised Alberta's rural school system, and the extension of the "Activity Program" in all our educational programs. Since the re-organization of Alberta's school system,

1. Schools have been kept in operation more school days each year.

2. Teachers salaries have been paid promptly.

3. Salary arrears which totalled $250,000 in 1935 have been wiped out in eleven divisions, and are being paid off rapidly in 33 other divisions.

4. Provisions are being made to refund debentures gradually.

5. High school services are being extended in rural areas.

6. Towns and Villages are uniting with the rural divisions to avail themselves of training in general shop subjects, household economics, dramatics, music, etc.

7. Costs of education are being equalized.

8. Written examinations are being reduced to a minimum.

9. In co-operation with the Dominion Government, short courses in agriculture, household economics, forestry work, social services, industry and commerce are being supplied.

10. Physical training is being provided through Youth Training centres.

Surely those are commendable. Those who opposed the change most strongly are now among the most ardent supporters of the Large Unit System. The object of the Large School Unit is to give every boy and girl whether living in country, town or city, an opportunity to secure an education commensurate with his or her needs. Adopt courses of study to the individual as determined by the ability and desired vocation of the students. Improve methods and standards of teaching, gradually liquidate all school debts and reduce general costs. Increase efficiency in school administration, provide more vocational training for all who need it. All these are in your best interest.

YOUR LOCAL PAPER

With this issue The Champion Chronicle has expanded to a four page, all home print newspaper which, in the terms of the craft indicates that the plant has advanced another milestone in its classification among the weekly newspapers of Canada. Words of encouragement and congratulations already received from public spirited citizens is indeed encouraging which will act as a stimulant to the editor to make further progressive changes in the future.

We do not wish to dwell upon the matter at this time except to say that the step has meant increased cost of production each week, and therefore must have the wholehearted support of all readers from Champion, Carmangay, Barons, Kirkaldy and the districts supported by these villages.

A weekly newspaper is apart from any other industry in the community in that it is a semi-public institution giving of itself for the benefit of the masses and yet depending upon individual support. It must give impartial service to all, irrespective of district, political, racial or religious feelings. As in the past the policy of the editor will be to so conduct this paper that it may prove an influence for good in the business, moral and cultural realms of the community maintaining the high standard of ethics set by the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association and of the best principles of journalism.

TREE PLANTING

At the council meeting recently Councillor Clever suggested that the Council of Champion should give free trees to all property owners who would promise to plant and take care of same, and this is a civic enterprise which can apply to all our towns.

A beautiful country is one of the greatest assets that a race can have, and a beautiful town and village is indeed a big advantage in attracting favorable opinion for our summer visitors.

As individuals we can do our bit for ourselves and our country by starting first at our own door step and beautifying our home grounds, then planting our countryside to trees wherever land is not profitable for crops would help ensure the regulations of our water supply, increase harborage for our beneficial birds and help supply clean entertainment and environment for ourselves.

Money spent on direct relief would be much better if spent on improving and beautifying the country and there is much that could be done in both village and rural school districts, many of which are nothing more than a bare patch on the prairie, and coun. Clever's suggestion was both timely and valuable.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

With the increase of space available the editor invites articles discussing public issues written for publication under "Letters to The Editor." This is a medium whereby thoughts and ideas may be broadcast without cost and available to all.

Letters must, however, be brief, factual and free from animosity towards anyone. Letters must be signed by the writer not necessarily for publication but indicate good faith.

AT THE CHURCHES

United. Rev. Peter Dawson—the minister Service at 7.30 p.m. Sacrament of Communion will be celebrated at close of service Catholic service at 9 a.m., Fr Ritter in charge.

GREETINGS

Mr. Gillivray S. McRae is to be congratulated for the forward step which he is taking in making The Champion Chronicle a home paper, a home paper dedicated to the interests of the community; thus giving to all citizens news of local interest and information necessary to community uplift. A home paper has a great influence in shaping public opinion and can be a vital power for good in a community.

Mr. McRae has been very active in community life in the short time since coming to Champion. The work an editor does is not usually attached to his name. In a sense, he works down out of sight among the hidden courses, his appreciation is in seeing the triumph of that to which his life is consecrated.

I join with others in wishing the Home Paper success, and trust that every citizen will get behind this enterprise and give it a boost.

PETER DAWSON.

PUBLIC LEADERS OFFER BEST WISHES

The 6th Annual Goodwill Message

This annual goodwill message from the children of Southern Alberta is broadcast today, May 18 from local stations and CBC. Schools kindly adopt it for their goodwill day program.

GOODWILL MESSAGE

Greetings from the boys and girls of Southern Alberta. We send good wishes to all the boys and girls in the world on this day, although there must be a difference among white, black, brown, red and yellow people—difference of language, racial instinct and mental outlook, still heaps of lasting warm friendship would enable us to understand these differences, and tend to unite us rather than divide us.

We wish to be friends will you join us on this day and help guide the world with strong waves of true friendship that we may banish time of the ugliness that have arisen from misunderstanding and ill will. The magic power of friendship heals all wounds of separateness changes hatred into kindness and understanding. The friendly spirit must prevail ere peace and justice be triumphant everywhere.

Grasshopper Situation In Alberta For 1939

The grasshopper forecast for Alberta this year is for an outbreak covering a larger area than in 1938, with an extension of the infested area westward and northward, and a light and patchy area recorded for the first time in the Peace River district.

The range of severity of infestation over the Province is termed "light" to "very severe" depending to a great extent upon the growth and climatic conditions last fall and this spring and early summer. Where the forecast is termed "severe" there is a threat of wide spread damage of great intensity which necessitates control measures on the part of farmers in those areas. Even in the light infested zone grasshoppers may be expected to be present in sufficient numbers to cause definite losses in individual fields. Therefore the hopper condition for 1939 continues to be extremely serious, and will require that the Province continue its widespread and will organize control campaign to avoid tremendous losses of crops in many large districts.

The Provincial Government is placing supplies and supervisors at the disposal of Municipalities and Improvement Districts in order to combat the expected outbreak. Farmers with in the grasshopper infested area are required to comply with the provisions of the "Provincial Agricultural Pests Act" in control of grasshoppers.

Communities and Municipalities wishing to hold public meetings, or requiring information, should communicate with the Field Crops Branch of the Provincial Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

Weeds Rob Farmers

Weeds, it is calculated, steal about 25 per cent of the farmers' crops.

With present very low prices on world's markets—hence in Canada—for all grains, this should be a good year to get rid of innumerable weeds by summer-fallowing perhaps a larger acreage than usual.
